

RAINBOW COMPOTE BY NANCY BUSH

I make this recipe whenever I'm preparing a brunch. It's easy, beautiful and delicious and people just throw compliments at you. Mom will think you're a winner! Just make sure she sees the full bowl before you dip a spoon in to serve her.

RAINBOW COMPOTE

4 oranges, peeled and sliced crosswise

1 ½ cups blueberries

2 cups cubed honeydew melon or peeled kiwi fruit

1 ½ cups halved strawberries or halved, seeded, red grapes

Pineapple chunks, optional

In a large GLASS bowl, layer from bottom to top:

Oranges, blueberries, kiwi/melon, strawberries/grapes. Top with pineapple chunks.

Pour honey-lime dressing (½ cup honey and ½ cup lime juice) over the top just before serving.

**Alternatively, I often keep the dressing in a separate bowl with a spoon so guests can serve themselves instead of pouring it over the top.
